

Irvington Town Hall Theater

OUR MISSION

The purpose of the Irvington Town Hall Theater is to encourage the presentation of challenging and entertaining productions of varied musical and dramatic styles and traditions, while seeking to preserve the sensitivities of our community. We present a unique setting for staging past and present works of proven or potential quality to the citizens of Irvington and the surrounding communities.

Welcome

As many patrons are aware, our previous theater manager Pamela Rapp retired at the end of this past season after 35 years of tirelessly serving Irvington in our beautiful Town Hall Theater. It was during the 80s that she and a group of devoted villagers restored the 432-seat theater to its original classic revival style design which eventually led to the Theater being listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Now we enter another era of renewal, growth and change. We are adding more programming this year produced by ITHT such as a Cabaret Series and a Series of Readings of New Works. We've set a goal to get people to purchase tickets online by offering discounts for those that utilize our online system instead of buying tickets at the door. In addition, you will notice a new look in this brochure and our website. While change may sometimes frighten people because of the unknown, our patrons have nothing to fear. You will continue to see the wonderful musicals you have become accustomed to by our resident theater company Clocktower Players; the exciting children's productions by Broadway Training Center of Westchester; inventive dances by Sleepy Hollow Performing Artists; a talented array of concerts presented by Common Ground or other presenters; our incredible Best of Film Series starting its 6th season; plus we'll introduce you to some new groups that offer quality theatrical arts such as Bill Bowers, Skyline Theater Company and 4th Wall Theatre. So take a look through this brochure, order those tickets online and we'll see you at the theater!

IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING

A Special ITHT Benefit Event

Saturday, October 4, 2014 at 8:00 PM

Written and Performed by BILL BOWERS

Directed by and Developed with MARTHA BANTA

Compared to the work of David Sedaris, Claudia Shear and Augustin Burroughs, IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING is a uniquely crafted autobiographical tour-de-force in which Bowers shares funny, heartbreaking, and unbelievable true stories from his career as an actor and mime, and his life-long exploration of the role silence plays in all our lives.

IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING takes you on a scenic tour of Bowers's life thus far; from his childhood in the wilds of Montana, to outrageous jobs as a performer across the country, to the whirlwind of Broadway and studying with the legendary Marcel Marceau. ## CABARET ON THE HUDSON

There is nothing like Cabaret!

An evening of song mixed with wonderful stories where the audience feels they are part of what is happening on stage. We are thrilled to partner with NiCori Studios and Productions to bring some of the best from NYC, Westchester, Rockland, and New Jersey to our Cabaret on the Hudson at ITH. Each event will be hosted by Corinna Sowers-Adler, multi-nominated cabaret artist and co-founder of Nicori Studios and Productions.

While we may not be a supper club, Irvington has some of the finest restaurants around. So come early, grab a bite, and settle in for a 75 minute show. You're out by 9:30 and have spent a Monday evening being entertained in a way that reality TV could never do.

Corinna Sowers-Adler made her Jazz at Lincoln Center debut last year at the Mabel Mercer Cabaret Convention and will be returning this year the week before she kicks off our Cabaret on the Hudson Series. She was nominated for Best Female Vocalist in the 2012 BroadwayWorld Awards, has booked and performed her solo shows to rave reviews at 54 Below, The Metropolitan Room, The Laurie Beechman Theater, Stage 72 at the Triad, The Duplex, Feinstein's at Loews Regency and is the host of the critically acclaimed, MAC Award-nominated "Music at the Mansion" series.

IRVINGTON STAGE DOOR

Welcome to the IRVINGTON STAGE DOOR — where new works in progress are presented to our patrons in a relaxed setting without sets, costumes, or props. It's all about the words at the Stage Door.

Join us for this new MONDAY NIGHT READING SERIES (a night notoriously dark on Broadway) where productions heading to NYC will stop by Irvington as actors present these pieces as a reading complete with a talk-back session with the creative team. Be a part of the process where you can question writers and be heard — before they are in production and at the mercy of critics.

Check out our website for specific details on upcoming Stage Door events.

"BIRTHDAY PIE" a play by Arthur Wooten
Presented by Iron Violet Productions, Iron Violet Stage, in association with Denman Turner Entertainment Group.

Bert Martindale is about to die; and to show her concern, his wife Trudy Lee decides to throw a birthday party for her favorite son, Lex. When the entire kin reunite, sixty years' worth of anger, resentments and jealousies bubble up to the surface. But as tears turn to laughter and secrets dissolve into confessions, it's Lex's heartbreaking reveal that makes for bittersweet farewells in this moving portrait of the all American family.

Monday, November 24, 2014 at 7:30 PM

"WENDY'S SHADOW" a new musical telling of the classic Peter Pan story with music and lyrics by David Maglione and Tomas Ruiz and book by Jason Cannon.

About the Musical: Goodbye means going away, and going away means forgetting. So what happens when the one who left... remembers you? The mischievous and magical adventure of Peter Pan is retold from Wendy's modern-day perspective with a contemporary folk/rock score. "WENDY'S SHADOW" takes the audience back to the Neverland—where dreams are born, and time is never planned—and asks if it's ever possible to leave the one you loved.
